

Hazelnuts

Hazelnuts are a relatively low maintenance crop that can survive on a wide range of environments and provide good returns.

Information and Support

Murray Redpath, a grower from Opotiki, has recorded a podcast that will be available on the Taieri LUDO website under development.

References

Hazelnut Growers of New Zealand has resources for new growers.

Great South (2019) has published information on Growing hazelnuts in Southland.

This OLW Research report on integrating horticultural and arable land use options has information on the hazelnut value chain on pages 25-27.

Murray Redpath (2016) has written a series of bulletins on hazelnut production. The first one gives an Introduction to growing hazelnuts in New Zealand.

This article from thisNZlife gives a good overview of the potential of the crop.

A business case for integrating a hazelnut orchard into an existing arable farm. George Lilley, Kellogg report, 2021. https://ruralleaders.co.nz/wp-content/uploads/2022/02/Lilley-George_A-Business-Case-for-Integrating-a-Hazelnut-Orchard-into-an-Existing-Arable-Farm.pdf